Don moved to approve November 2017 Minutes. Kathy, MSC. Passed unanimously.
- II. JJDPC - involvement, opportunities and activities
 - A. Chiefs meeting and JJDPC's collaboration with the Human Rights Commission

Dana talked to Chiefs of Police about having a common data system. There was pushback because of the size of the endeavor, challenges in working together on such a large undertaking. Kathy and Dana are working to initiate a plan for JJDPC and Human Rights Commission to work together to explore diversion programs and to ensure that the justice system is equitable.
 - B. Youth Officers Roundtable
 - i. The Commission will continue with Youth Officer Roundtable in spring (April-May). Beverly agreed to take the lead on planning. Don and Jacklyn agreed to be on committee. Potential area of focus: diversion programs, including a panel.
 - C. "Know Your Rights" Workshop
 - i. Anna suggests Bar Association will collaborate with San Rafael High School students on Commission to orchestrate an event either at lunchtime, after school, or evening. Anna suggests possibility of doing it "Law Day" on May 1. Ken Lippi (MCOE) offered to help.
- III. Updates, reports, follow-ups
 - A. Juvenile Hall and Juvenile Probation
 - i. Making use of tablets in classes (Summit Learning Program). Ken Lippi will come again to explain how it's rolling out. Takes a lot of training for teachers and others. Trying to coordinate what goes on at Hall with what goes on in Community School.

B. Youth Court

- i. Starting a program with “Mentor Me” in Petaluma. Don is providing training in restorative practices and will also do so in “harm reduction”. Siskiyou County coming next month to observe. Working with Alcatraz to create community service opportunities for students from Youth Court. Under a federal grant, they are renovating museum and will include exhibition of programs that keep youth out of institutions, including Youth Court. Positive meeting with Judge Wood about youth showing up in traffic court for marijuana infractions, and she has begun referring to Youth Court.

C. New Commissioners’ Status
