Guests: Tori Lemos, Antonio Zavala, Anali Reyes, Marissa Wertheimer, Jose Varela, Dana Pepp

1. Introductions and meeting call to order 4:30-4:40

Alexa brought the meeting to order and everyone gave an introduction to each other in the group.

2. Mike Daly Celebration and send off! 4:40-5:20

The group made a video for Mike Daly on zoom to wish him a happy retirement.

3. JJDPC - involvement, opportunities and activities 5:20-5:40

- a. Due to technical issues, the meeting minutes were not able to be opened. Both the May and June minutes will be approved at the July meeting.
- b. New Commissioners - Scott Eberle

Scott Eberle is still being processed to become a commissioner. Unfortunately, he was not able to attend the meeting due to the protests.

- c. JJCC Meeting review (same budget for probation and probation programs next year)!

The budget will remain the same for the year and will not change in the wake of COVID-19.

d. Police Department Inspections

Alexa relayed to the group that Mill Valley and San Rafael were the two police departments which held juveniles in the past year so there needs to be an inspection of these two locations. Due to COVID, there is uncertainty as to when the inspection will occur.

4. Strategic Focus

- a. Education interest and follow up - next steps 5:40-6:00

Alexa spoke about compiling a list of questions to ask Juvenile Hall and other organizations to see if juveniles in the system aspire to go to college.

5. Updates, reports, follow-ups 6:00-6:15

- a. Juvenile Hall Updates Tori

Tori gave an update on Juvenile Hall, which is still taking precautions against the COVID pandemic. The snapshot currently shows 4 boys and 2 girls.

- b. Youth Court Update Don

The YMCA has continued to hold Youth Court sessions every Wednesday. Don has noticed that holding the sessions on Zoom has increased the court's reach, allowing people to attend from all over the state.

6. Announcements/New Business 6:15

Alexa expressed a need for a platform that the commission can use to express itself, and make statements to the public about current issues. Facebook page to be created and webpage to be better utilized.

Meeting Adjourned at 6:00

Upcoming meeting dates: 7.7, 8.4, 9.2
