Chief Marlon Washington formally introduced himself to the commission as the Chief Probation Officer in Marin County. He spoke about looking forward to working and being involved with the commission.

3. Luis Luciano - Career Explorers Presentation 5:00-5:45

Luis Luciano shared about the Career Explorers program which works to help youth complete service hours, obtain internships, provide employment counseling, and many other beneficial services. Their target students are those in alternative education programs and they provide them with workforce preparation training, such as conflict resolution training. They as well support them with filling out job applications and preparing for job interviews. In recent years they have served around 55 students per year.

4. JJDCP Business 5:45-6:00

- a. New Commissioners - Scott Eberle, Steven Kaplan, Antonio Zavala, Jazzy Gerraty

The group congratulated their newest commissioners, Scott Eberle, Steven Kaplan, Antonio Zavala, and Jazzy Gerraty.

- b. Police Department Inspections: SRPD completed, Mill Valley (attempting to schedule)

Alexa is still attempting to schedule an inspection at Mill Valley Police Department, but was not in attendance for this meeting.

- c. Virtual YOR - Sub committee

Tabled until next meeting.

5. Updates, reports, follow-ups 6:00-6:15

- a. Juvenile Hall Updates Tori

Juvenile Hall is still offering education opportunities for youth, with COVID-19 restrictions and precautions still in place. Youth are able to visit with their parents with iPads, and distance learning has been continuing with the Hall's chromebooks. The snapshot shows 4 boys and 1 girl at Juvenile Hall.

- b. Youth Court Update Don

Don reported that they have been up and running on zoom since April and that it has increasingly grown their reach and students from around the state have joined.

Antonio added that the Youth Court's work at Madrone has been successful despite the Pandemic, and that the youth involved have been surprisingly engaged participants. They have also directed their attention to race issues within the county. The Youth Court plans on continuing to improve the virtual Youth Court hearings, extending their reach and influence.
