Commissioner Updates, Roles, Responsibilities 4:45 - 5:00pm

- Jack talked with the Santa Cruz JJDC chair and learned they're in the process of re-writing their by-laws, too, and are interested in our youth intern program
- He also spoke with the Santa Clara JJDC, and they want to know how involved our commission is in Senate Bill 823
- Marin only has two kids in Department of Juvenile Justice, and one cases will be supervised by the County's juvenile probation and the other will be held in another county's secure facility before 2023
- Antonio will schedule a time to meet with the Sonoma JJDC this month
- The Commission delayed voting on the Sheriff Oversight Planning Recommendation until more Commissioners were present
- Motion to approve minutes passed

School Safety Team - Discussion 5:00-5:30pm

- Antonio and Don talked with Novato Unified Schools Districts (NUSD) restorative justice practitioner and learned the school district is no longer funding the department next year
- The Novato Community Equity Group has proposed a revision of the School Resource Officer (SRO) rules of engagement
 - o Police Engagement form
 - o Resources for Disciplinary Action Matrix

- The Commission is waiting for Jim Hogeboom to endorse the School Safety Initiative. Next, the Commission will present it to Mary Jane Burke. A Marin IJ Journalist is maybe interested in doing a story on the School Safety Initiative. He will be asked to email questions to the Commission
